

LEARNING UPDATE - 29

Friday, 27 August, 2021

Working so that our students feel they are known, understood, valued and learning.

As Year 12 begin their final Assessment period in these difficult times, we pray for their continued perseverance as they look with hope towards the completion of the HSC. We hope that they are inspired by their experiences at their Retreat and remember "You are the light of the world - let your light shine before others." (Mt 5:14-16).

Loving God,

You asked us to let our light shine before others, but that feels difficult right now.

At this time, we ask for the intercession of your Spirit.

Grant us the perseverance to keep shining,
the strength to reach out and share our light and hope for a brighter future.

We ask this in Jesus' name, Amen

St Clare, Pray For Us.

Dear Parents / Carers,

Some information about a return to school in NSW was provided by the government in the Press Briefing today. We will provide you with any details as soon as these can be finalised. As you would know there are factors that will need to be considered before final decisions can be made.

IMPORTANT information regarding Mental Health Services and link to monitor emergency wait times.

This is the link for Stride, the service at Blacktown that offers mental health support to people 16 and over who are thinking of suicide and don't want to go to the emergency department.

This is the link for the emergency room waiting times.
